Changed from the Inside Out

This Sunday, we will consider the following question: What kind of change shows that the Holy Spirit really lives within us?

Many people think that behaving like a Christian is what really matters. But the Old Testament books of Jeremiah and Ezekiel foretell of a time when God will give his people “a new heart” and “a new spirit” (Ezek. 36:26) and will “put [his] law within them” and “write it on their hearts” (Jer. 31:33). We are now living in that time.

If we have the Holy Spirit, there will be more than just an outward change. There should first be an inward change. The gospel changes us from the inside-out.

Please join us, whether in person or online, as we get into 2 Corinthians 3:1-6. Before the service, you’re encouraged to carefully read this passage.

Sunday Worship

See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are.
