Happy Father's Day!

This Sunday is Father's Day, a day on which we honour Fathers.

Of course, this is something we should do every day of the year. The Fifth Commandment says, "Honour your father and mother." Proverbs 1:8-9 tells us, "Hear, my son, your father's instruction, and forsake not your mother's teaching, for they are a graceful garland for your head and pendants for your neck."

As we honour our fathers today, let's not forget about our heavenly Father. Psalm 103:13 says, "As a father shows compassion to his children, so the LORD shows compassion to those who fear him." Jesus pictured our Father's compassion in the story of the prodigal son: "But while [the son] was still a long way off, his father saw him and felt compassion, and ran and embraced him and kissed him" (Luke 15:20).

The apostle Paul writes, "Be imitators of God, as beloved children" (Eph. 5:1). May those of us who are fathers strive to be more like our heavenly Father.

Happy Father's Day!

New City Catechism

Join us live on Facebook this Thursday at 6:30 p.m.! We are on a journey through the New City Catechism.

The catechism consists of 52 questions and answers about the Christian faith. If we know the answers to these 52 questions, then we will know what the Christian faith is all about—we will know what we believe.

You can get free access to the New City Catechism by either using the web app or the mobile app. The apps can be found at newcitycatechism.com.

Question 4	Answer	Scripture
What else did God create? us?	God created all things by his powerful Word, and all his creation was very good; everything flourished under his loving rule.	Genesis 1:31 And God saw everything that he had made, and behold, it was very good
